Re: Mortgage-Backed Trusts Missing Critical Documents

Dear Chairman Schapiro and Director Khuzami:

This is a report of suspected fraud involving mortgage-back securities. Certain mortgage-backed trusts have been using forged and fraudulent mortgage assignments in foreclosure actions in Florida, and throughout the United States.

These assignments are most often produced by employees of Lender Processing Services, Inc., ("LPS"), a mortgage default management company located in Jacksonville, FL. LPS produced several million Mortgage Assignments, using its own employees to sign as if they were officers of the original lenders. The fraud includes:

- Mortgage assignments with forged signatures of the individuals signing on behalf of the grantors, and forged signatures of the witnesses and the notaries;
- Mortgage assignments with signatures of individuals signing as corporate officers for corporations that never employed them in any such capacity;
- Mortgage assignments prepared and signed by individuals as corporate officers of mortgage companies that had been dissolved by bankruptcy years prior to the Assignment;
- Mortgage assignments prepared with purported effective dates unrelated to the date of any actual or attempted transfer (and in the case of trusts, years after the closing date of the trusts);
- Mortgage assignments prepared on behalf of grantors who had never themselves acquired ownership of the mortgages and notes by a valid transfer, including numerous such assignments where the grantor was identified as "Bogus Assignee for Intervening Assignments;" and
- Mortgage assignments notarized by notaries who never witnessed the signatures that they notarized.

Trust officers used these fraudulent mortgage assignments to conceal the fact that the trusts are missing critical documents, namely, the mortgage assignments that were supposed to have been delivered to the trusts at the inception of the trust.

These trusts suffered the following economic harm:

The Trusts paid substantial fees to the Trustees for Document Custodial Services including fees for obtaining and retaining a Mortgage Assignment for each of the properties in the trust. The Assignment was supposed to have been "in recordable form" – that is, legally sufficient to allow the Trustee to foreclose in the event of default. These services were never provided. In each trust identified herein, many if not all of the Mortgage Assignments were never obtained, or were obtained and lost.

Because the Assignments were not obtained and/or _____ retained, the Trusts incurred significant additional expenses:

- i) each Trust paid, and will continue to pay, hundreds of thousands of dollars in fees to mortgage servicers, document preparation companies and law firms to prepare and record "Replacement Assignments" including Assignments that were prepared with false information regarding dates and signers; ii) each Trust paid, and will continue to pay, hundreds of thousands of dollars in fees to the default management company and to law firms retained by the mortgage servicing companies and/or default management company (usually, Lender Processing Services) to litigate the issue of the standing of the trust to file the foreclosure action because the Assignment to the Trust that established standing was missing or never obtained.

In many cases, because the Assignments were not obtained and/or retained, the Trust could not successfully foreclose when loans in the Trust defaulted. In many cases, where the Trust has successfully foreclosed, it had no legal right to do so and the Trust has been or will be exposed to claims for wrongful foreclosure by former homeowners and claims of fraud by subsequent purchasers. In many cases, where mortgage servicing companies or law firms representing the Trust attempted to collect amounts due from defaulting homeowners of properties in the trust, the debt collection activities violated the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act because the Trust had no right to pursue collection or foreclosure where it lacked a valid Assignment.

In many cases, particularly where the loan originator is a mortgage company that is no longer in existence, it may not be possible to ever obtain a valid Assignment to the Trust. Long after the Trustees and Servicers became aware that critical documents, the Assignments, were missing, the Trustees and Servicers failed to disclose that information to the Certificate Holders and to the SEC.

Attached hereto are examples of fraudulent Assignments. Many (over 100,000) of these are signed by Linda Green. From an examination of the signatures, it is apparent that many different employees signed the name Linda Green. Job Titles attributed to Green include the following:

- Vice President, Loan Documentation, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., successor by merger to Wells Fargo Home Mortgage, Inc.;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for American Home Mortgage Acceptance, Inc.;
- Vice President, American Home Mortgage Servicing as successor-in-interest to Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for American Brokers Conduit;
- Vice President & Asst. Secretary, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc., as servicer for Ameriquest Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for HLB Mortgage;
- Vice President, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc.;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for Family Lending Services, Inc.;
- Vice President, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. as successor-in-interest to Option One Mortgage Corporation; • Vice President, Argent Mortgage Company, LLC by Citi Residential Lending Inc., attorney-in-fact;
- Vice President, Sand Canyon Corporation f/k/a Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Amtrust Funsing (sic) Services, Inc., by American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. as Attorney-in-fact; and • Vice President, Seattle Mortgage Company.

Other LPS employees similarly used job many different job titles and claimed to be officers of many different mortgage companies on Mortgage Assignments.

Korell Harp and Tywana Thomas used a variety of conflicting job titles on Assignments of Mortgages in 2008 and 2009, holding themselves out to be officers of numerous different banks and mortgage-related entities, often using numerous conflicting titles in the same week.

Titles attributed to Korell Harp include Vice President of American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. as successor-in-interest to Option One Mortgage Corporation; Vice President of American Brokers Conduit; Vice President of Argent Mortgage Company, LLC; and Vice President of Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc.

Titles attributed to Tywana Thomas include Assistant Vice President of Option One Mortgage Corporation, Assistant Vice President of American Home Mortgage Servicing, Assistant Vice President of Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Assistant vice President of Argent Mortgage Company, LLC, Assistant Vice President of Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, Assistant Vice President of Sand Canyon Corporation and Assistant Vice President of American Home Mortgage Acceptance.

MEMORANDUM TO THE FINANCIAL FRAUD ENFORCEMENT TASK FORCE

FROM:  THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
Chair, Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force

SUBJECT: Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities

The recent global financial crisis has affected, and continues to affect, millions of Americans who placed their trust in the integrity and fairness of our financial institutions and markets. Through congressional inquiry and other criminal and civil investigations into the cause of the financial crisis, we have learned that the creation, sale, and, ultimately, massive failure of residential mortgage-backed securities (or, RMBS, as they are known) contributed significantly to the collapse of the housing market, damaged the public's trust and threatened the safety and soundness of our economy.

Many of our Task Force members have conducted, and currently are conducting, civil and criminal investigations into the RMBS market to determine whether it was infected by fraud and other misconduct. As you know, a central mission of the Task Force is to enhance the government's effectiveness to prevent and combat financial fraud by sharing information and fostering cooperation among members. Therefore, in order to collaborate with these existing state and federal investigations, as well as forthcoming investigations, I am directing the Task Force to create a new working group specifically devoted to this issue. Specifically, I am asking this new group -- the Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities Working Group -- to assist state and federal law enforcement offices in achieving justice for the victims of any such misconduct by collaborating on the existing ongoing efforts as well as new investigations into these matters, including:

- misrepresentations by originators, sponsors, underwriters, and other market participants concerning the quality of mortgages backing the RMBS;
- failures to transfer ownership of the collateral into the securities;
- failures by trustees to manage adequately the assets within the securitized pools of loans;
- failures by RMBS sponsors to repurchase the problematic loans or remit loan proceeds to RMBS trusts;
- failures by RMBS sponsors to adequately reserve for and/or disclose the potential exposure to liability if obligations to repurchase problematic loans were triggered; and

- any harm suffered by American consumers as a result of any of the above misrepresentations or failures.

In addition, I am directing the group to collaborate regarding investigations of misconduct in the origination of loans insured by federal government agencies.

Each of the following individuals, true leaders and experts in this field, will act as a co-chair for the group:

- Lanny Breuer, Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, DOJ
- Robert Khuzami, Director of Enforcement, SEC
- Eric Schneiderman, Attorney General, State of New York
- John Walsh, United States Attorney, District of Colorado
- Tom West, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division, DOJ

The mission of the group – to hold accountable those who violated the law and provide relief for homeowners struggling from the collapse of the housing market – will be furthered through the active participation of the following members:

- Executive Office for United States Attorneys
- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Financial Crimes Enforcement Network
- Internal Revenue Service - Criminal Investigation
- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
- Federal Housing Finance Agency's Office of Inspector General
- United States Department of Housing and Urban Development
- United States Department of Housing and Urban Development's Office of Inspector General

I direct that this Working Group report directly to the Task Force Steering Committee periodically on developments.

To the extent there was any fraud or misconduct in the RMBS market, we remain committed to discovering it and ensuring that justice is achieved for the victims. I have created this new working group for that purpose, and I look forward to hearing about the great work that it will accomplish.

Open Letter to Senator Elizabeth Warren

May 23, 2018

Re: Ocwen Loan Servicing and Wells Fargo Bank acting as Attorney-in-Fact for New Century Mortgage, a Defunct, Non-Authorized Foreign Corporation

Dear Senator Warren:

This letter concerns mortgage assignments made by Ocwen Loan Servicing and the mortgage assignment team of Wells Fargo Bank in foreclosure cases involving mortgage-backed trusts. Ocwen and Wells Fargo make these assignments for bank/trustees, especially Deutsche Bank, to use in foreclosures, particularly in cases involving Morgan Stanley ABS Capital I, Inc. trusts, ("MSAC trusts") and Goldman Sachs trusts ("GSAMP trusts"). Unfortunately, this is not just a historical problem that occurred in the years of the financial crisis. Ocwen and Wells Fargo made and led these assignments nationwide through 2018. These misleading assignments continue to be used against homeowners in foreclosure cases.

Loans made by New Century Mortgage and other subprime lenders were funneled into MSAC and GSAMP trusts that held billions of dollars in loans, with Deutsche Bank often servicing as trustee. Wells Fargo Bank and Ocwen acted as loan servicers. New Century was ordered to cease doing business in Massachusetts, New York and many other states in March 2007. New Century led for bankruptcy in April 2007. New Century's assets were transferred to the New Century Liquidating Trust. Despite the enforcement actions and bankruptcy and transfer of assets, Wells Fargo and Ocwen continued to produce mortgage assignments for the trusts that held the New Century loans, as if New Century Mortgage continues to exist and continues to own mortgages. These assignments wrongly state the date on which the mortgages were assigned to the trusts and also wrongly state the chain of title of the loans and mortgages. These assignments wrongly show that mortgages were assigned to trusts years after the trusts actually closed, and after the loans were already in default. No assignments were actually made on the Ocwen, Wells Fargo and Deutsche Bank have used these assignments to foreclose on tens of thousands of homeowners. Deutsche Bank uses these assignments to add credibility to its claims that it has the right to foreclose. Examples of these assignments are attached to this letter as Appendix A. Examples from Florida, South Essex County, Massachusetts, Guilford County, North Carolina and Beaufort County, South Carolina are included.

When Deutsche Bank needs documents to build its foreclosure cases, Deutsche Bank turns to Wells Fargo and Ocwen. I am asking that Wells Fargo, Ocwen and Deutsche Bank be enjoined from creating and ling mortgage assignments for New Century Mortgage or any other defunct company.

Despite all the actions taken against them, Ocwen and Wells Fargo continue to act to harm homeowners and investors, often acting under the guise of MERS officers or as attorney-in-fact, for companies that have long been defunct. Companies that were enjoined from acting in Massachusetts, Florida and other states continue to act through these assignments.

Thank you for your leadership and all of your e orts to regulate the conduct of banks and mortgage servicers.

Yours truly,
Lynn E. Szymoniak, Esq.

Because of the strict laws governing of these kinds of securities, there's no way to make the assignments after the fact. Advertisers have a name for this "securitization fail."
